

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE AND WEST BRANCH FARMER

The System of Medicine.
The Newark Daily Advertiser publishes the following recipe of a Homeopathic dose:

Take a little Rum,
The less you take the better,
Mix it with the lakes
Of Werner and of Wetter.
Drop a spoonful out—
Mind you don't get enough—
Pour it in the Lake
Winnsipugue.

Stir the mixture well,
Let it prove inferior,
Then put half a drop
Into Lake Superior.

Every other day
Take a drop in water;
You'd be better soon—
Or at least you'd know.

The N.Y. Journal of Commerce refers to the following Allopathic prescription:

Take some Calomel,
The more you take the better,
Mix it with a drop
Or two of cistern water.

Feed some to your dog,
It will make him vomit,
And may be, see stars,
Or perhaps a concert.

Once in half an hour
Take a rousing portion;
Say a tumbler full,
If that suits your notion.

Should you chance to die,
And you're almost sure to,
You may safely swear
That it didn't cure you.

Another correspondent gives the following recipe for Hydropathic treatment:

Take a linen sheet,
The bigger 'tis the better,
Wrap yourself up well,
And plunge into the water.

Any water'll do—
Crotton, sea or cistern.
Each should make a choice
Of what best suits his turn.

When you're fairly soaked,
If you don't feel better,
Take a copious shower bath
And get a little wetter.

Touch no wine nor gin,
But gallons of cold water;
You'll be sooner—
If you aint, you or'nt.

Theromathy.
Take some No. 6,
The more you take the better,
A lump or two of sugar,
An oz. of cayenne pepper.

Make a tea of herbs,
Add lobelia to it,
With such other things
As you think will do;

Seam yourself right well,
But take no time to think;
Pour the hot stuff down
As fast as you can drink.

If this you will but do,
You sure will get hotter;
Or, perhaps you'll die—
But that's—no matter.

Moonshine-pathy.
Take a girl of spirit—
The more she has the better,
Take a moonlight walk—
If there's no moon, no water.

Talk of things romantic—
Add aperito's to it;
It she only smiles,
Squeezo her hand upon it.

After half an hour,
Dare to steal a kiss;
Perhaps half a dozen,
I, she's not a bushy Miss.

It she box your ears,
She's almost sure to;

Then you may safely say
That she didn't cure you.

Stomachopathy.
Get a pile of rocks,
Or bags, if nothing better,
Heat them hissing hot,
And yourself with pepper.

Put them in a basin,
Underneath a chair,
Wrap a blanket round you,
To exclude the air.

Pour some water on them,
And Composition down
Your throat, to start the cunker,
And so disuse up brown.

Or lobelia take a portion,
Wind up with No. 6,

A crisis follows motion,
And you're shortly in a fix.

Quackopathy.
Take of Braudreth's pills
A twenty-five cent box,
And of Townsend's Sarsaparilla
Enough to kill an ox.

Before you go to bed,
Eat a quart of Salmigondi,
And on the top of this
Take a dose of aconitum.

Every night and morning,
Drink a pint of brandy,
Sweeten if you please,
With a stick of Cough Cure Candy.

Then add to the above,
A pint of Quacknipp tea,
Then if you are not dead,
You surely ought to be.

Senseopathy.
Take the open air.

The more you take the better,
Follow nature's laws

To the very letter.

Let the Doctors go
To the Bay of Biscay,
Let alone the Gin,
The Brandy and the Whiskey.

Freely exercise.

Keep your spirits cheerful,
Let no dread of sickness

Make you ever fearful.

Eat the simplest food,
Drink the pure cold water,

Then you will be well

Or, at least you ought to.
